Blue Jays Game

July 19, 2014

The league is hosting our annual event Each player gets a FREE ticket to attend the game (they must be accompanied by an adult). Tickets will be available at the end of May, down at the field. Book soon; quantities are limited! We look forward to parents and players joining us for a memorable day!

Uniform handouts

May 13 at the park

At the park we will be handing your team uniforms. We ask that all players get together with their coaches early.

Picture Day

May 20 T-Ball & Squirts

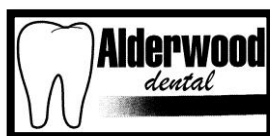

May 21 Rookie & Mites

Please mark these days on your calendar. If possible, showing up early makes the process run smoothly.

Helmets & Gloves

Ball gloves should be durable and sized appropriately to the hand of the player. A glove too small, or big, can result in injury.

Jocks & Jills are mandatory. Remember, SAFETY FIRST! Then, we play ball!

Our Valued Sponsors

T-Ball players

We ask that all parents come out with their own ball gloves to help the kids with catching drills.

Rookie players

Rookie players ages 5 & 6 is an advance style of T-Ball. Rookies will start to learn how to hit a pitched ball and use a tee.

Snacks for the players

Our league asks that parents provide snacks for their child's team on a rotating basis throughout the season. The coach will supply a list and it works out to 2 or 3 times over the course of a season. Our Snack Bar offers a variety of choices and we offer team discounts. We hope you help to support our Snack Bar as it in turn helps to support your league.

Game Times

We ask ALL players to be at their games 15 minutes beforehand so coaches can make up their game sheets.

If you are not able to attend please let your coach know well in advance.

FAMOUS QUOTES

Little League baseball is a very good thing because it keeps the parents off the streets.
